BECAUSE THEY LIKED CHICKEN*Two Torresdale Men Enter Guilty Pleas At Court*GET PRISON TERMS*Both Defendants Earned
Good Wages Each Week

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 25—Pleading guilty to stealing chickens from an Andalusia farmer two Torresdale men said they did it because they liked to eat chicken.

The two chicken thieves, John Howard, 39, and John Irving, 18, both of near Torresdale, who earned $87 and $120 a week respectively admitted they stole 60 chickens and were sentenced by Judge Calvin S. Boyer to serve not less than three months nor more than two years in the Bucks County Prison, pay the cost of prosecution and pay the value of the chickens which amounted to $120.

The two defendants, who pleaded guilty to stealing chickens from Charles Trickle, Andalusia farmer July 31, astonished the Court because they could give no reason for their crime which consisted of three charges, burglary, larceny and receiving stolen goods.

When Mrs. Howard, wife of one of the defendants and mother of four children, of 4934 Peterson st., Pleasant Hill, stood up in court and begged Judge Boyer not to send her husband to prison, Judge Boyer said, "The crime is too serious. Your husband should have thought about you and your four children before he stole the chickens."

Howard, a painter and paper-hanger, informed Judge Boyer he was earning $87 a week and didn't need the money. In fact, he kept some of the chickens for himself and gave eight away to friends. He admitted he had been drinking.

Irving, Academy road, Pleasant Hill, who said he has his own ice business and is earning $120 a week testified he had a bad toothache the night the two raided the chicken range shelter on Trickle's farm. "Did you think chicken would be good for a toothache?" Judge Boyer asked.

State Trooper Thomas F. Marks, of the Langhorne sub-station of the P. S. P., made the arrest. There were five "character" witnesses.

To Discuss Extension Of YMCA Work Locally

The State Young Men's Christian Association will hold a dinner meeting Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the St. James parish house, Wood and Walnut streets, for the discussion of the work accomplished and the extension of the State Young Men's Christian Association here.

A number of local people, whom it is believed would be interested in the extension of Y. M. C. A. work in Bristol have been invited to the dinner, and reservations have been received for 125 persons. David Landreth, chairman, will preside at the dinner. Guest speakers for the evening will be Judge Harold B. Wells, Court of Errors and Appeals of New Jersey, Bordentown, N. J., and W. Haines Kent, state secretary of Y. M. C. A., Harrisburg.

The services of the Y. M. C. A. have been greatly extended in Bristol this past year with such activities as the industrial management club, Bristol Youth Week, baseball leagues, swimming instruction, etc. Also the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs in the high school, with a membership now of over 200 boys and girls, have attended rallies, conferences, training camps, youth and government programs, and many other activities.

Through the services of the local board of directors this year, the Y. M. C. A. in Bristol is now incorporated and established as the Bristol Young Men's Christian Association.

The committee assisting Mr. Landreth with the dinner, and all members of the board of directors of the Bristol Y. M. C. A. who have aided in the extension of the Y. M. C. A. services here are: Harold N. Crocker, Warren P. Snyder, David Hertzler, John Burris, Devon Smith, Clyde Waterman, Paul V. Forster, Lester D. Thorne, James D. Wilson, Dr. John J. Hargrave, the Rev. Edward G. Yeomans, Mrs. Elwood Goslin, Mrs. Louis Townsend, Sr., and Miss Marian E. Peck.

New Members Welcomed Into Methodist W. S. C. S.

The September business meeting of the W. S. C. S., Bristol Methodist Church, was presided over by Mrs. Richard Winslow, Wednesday evening. Devotions were in charge of Miss Elizabeth Wilkinson, and greetings were extended to Mrs. Harry H. H. Poole, a former active member of the society. Mrs. Poole's response was wittingly given. Mrs. Lee Vangilder and Mrs. Warren Jennings were welcomed as new members.

After a business, Miss Marion Walters handled the lesson of the evening entitled "His Way in Poland." A "sunshine bag" is to be sent to Mrs. William Michalsky, who is a patient in Abington Hospital.

Following the lesson, the women adjourned to the dining hall of the church to partake of refreshments served by the committee in charge, namely: Miss Annie Heritage, Mrs. David Mulholland, and Mrs. Frank Jenks.

PLEADS GUILTY
TO EMBEZZLEMENT*Shirley M. Wieder, Sellersville,
Given Suspended
Sentence by Court*TO PAY MONEY BACK

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 25—Pleading guilty to a charge of embezzlement and fraudulent conversion Shirley M. Wieder, Sellersville, bookkeeper for Grobler and Braune, well known Quakertown heating and insulation concern, was on trial at a session of criminal court.

The amount taken from her employers was fixed at $3200 by Miss Wieder, while the employers believe it was approximately $5000 over a period of several years.

Represented by Attorney Donald R. Smith, of Perkasie, Miss Wieder told the court that she used the money to buy a home for her parents and to furnish the home.

Before pronouncing sentence, Judge Keller said that he had given the case a lot of thought.

"The court is at a loss to know what to do, but I have before me a doctor's certificate which helps me somewhat. I have very little sympathy for this type of offender but this case is rather an unusual type. It depicts the natural desire of a young woman to have a nice home for her parents.

"I am quite sure that all the jurors, as well as the court sympathize with this young woman after hearing the case. I believe it could have been avoided if a proper system of bookkeeping had been used by this concern but, of course, that is no excuse for this crime."

Miss Wieder, who is engaged to be married, testified—as others did—that complete restitution will be made by the young woman and her parents.

"No doubt the court will be criticized for what I intend to do in this case, but I'm doing what I think will be best for all parties concerned."

Judge Keller then suspended a prison sentence on condition that Miss Wieder pay the costs and that she pay her employers the amount unlawfully appropriated, and that she obey the laws in the future.

The suspended sentence covers a 23-month probationary period. Judge Keller, directed that restitution, or at least a part of it be made within six months.

DOYLESTOWN MAY GET A NEW INDUSTRY*Blaisdell Pencil Co. is Interested in Locating in The County Seat*TO BUILD A FACTORY

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 25—This borough is to get a new industry if a committee of borough council approves the application.

Three executives of the Blaisdell Pencil Company of Phila., a 100-year-old concern, appeared before council and requested permission to erect a new manufacturing plant at Doyle and Broad streets, here.

The present plant of the company is located at Wayne Junction, but if permission is granted to locate in Doylestown, the main plant will be located here. The building plans call for the erection of a steel, concrete and brick plant with a frontage of 300 feet on Broad street, 150 feet deep, containing some 26,400 square feet of floor space.

The company will manufacture pencils and fountain pen casings and will handle a lot of celluloid or plastic and inflammable material. The building, however, calls for modern and fireproof construction, and must first be approved by the underwriters after Council grants permission to have the plant erected here.

A committee of Council members will look into the application and will visit the Philadelphia plant of the Blaisdell company before taking action to be announced at the next meeting. The plant will employ between 80 and 100 people, mostly girls.

TO ARREST FIFTH
BOY IN ATTACK CASE*Two of Four Youths Held in $1,000 Bail Each and Others Without Bail*ALL PLEAD GUILTY

Two of the four Philadelphia youths involved in attacking a 13-year old girl in a car parked in West Bristol, Wednesday evening, were held in $1,000 bail each; and the two others were held without bail for the next term of court, last night, after hearings before Justice of the Peace Max M. Lawrence. The hearings were held in the Bristol municipal building.

Police expect to arrest a fifth youth who has been implicated by both the girl and the four given hearings.

At the hearings last evening, Richard Gerner, 29, E. Clearfield street; Charles Holmestown, 18, N. Weymouth street, Philadelphia, were charged with assault and battery and contributing to the delinquency of a minor. The bail for each was set at $1,000.

Joseph Dougherty, 18, W. Wishart street, and James Perfidio, 22, E. Clementine street, were held without bail on a charge of statutory rape, assault and battery, and contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

The four, along with the girl, were taken into custody Wednesday evening at about 9:15 by Police Chief Joseph Seader, Bristol Township, and Police Chief Linford J. Jones, Bristol police. The two officers, en route to serve a warrant in West Bristol, got a radio dispatch from Bristol police headquarters that some men were acting suspiciously in a car parked at West Bristol. They went to the vicinity and caught the five.

Upon being questioned at police headquarters here the girl made the accusations and the youths admitted their guilt, according to the police at that time. Last evening the youths pleaded guilty.

Signed confessions made before Chief Bucks County Detective Anthony Russo, Chief Seader and Chief Jones had previously been obtained. Last evening Chief Seader testified to the circumstances of the case and the girl told how she had met the boys in Philadelphia and driven with them to the secluded and isolated spot. She told how one after the other had acted toward her and about the arrival of the police. Detective Russo questioned her and also Chief Seader who testified to the arrest and the position in which he and Chief Jones had found one of the boys and the girl.

Mrs. Holmestown, mother of one of the boys, fainted after the hearing.

The boys were taken to the county jail at Doylestown last night, and the girl was also taken to Doylestown. Her mother and father were at the hearing last evening.

Session at Dyer Home

NEWPORTVILLE, Sept. 25—Members of the young adults Sunday School class of Newportville Community Church—Presbyterian held a meeting at the home of Mrs. John Dyer Wednesday evening. Prayer was led by the president, Mrs. Arthur Barclay, in the absence of the teacher, Mrs. Gertrude Everett.

After business, members discussed interesting books they had read. All named their favorite plant or flower, roses being acclaimed by the majority; and African violet as the popular plant. Two games were participated in, alphabet quiz, and "things found on a penny", with the winners being Mrs. Walter Bowker and Mrs. Paul Kramer. The prizes were crocheted handkerchiefs. Others attending: Mrs. Walter Wrzeszczynski, Mrs. Lester Buzby, Mrs. Robert Andrews, Mrs. Charles Shagg. The meeting was concluded with serving of refreshments.

PUBLIC IS INVITED TO COUNCIL SESSION*Special Invitation Made; In Observance of Pennsylvania Week*SET FOR OCTOBER 11

The public is invited to attend the next regular meeting of Bristol borough council, October 11th, in the council chamber at the municipal building, Pond and Mulberry streets. The meetings of council are always open to the public, but a special effort is to be made to have the public attend the October session as part of Pennsylvania Week, which is to be observed state-wide from September 26th to October 2nd.

When the matter was discussed recently, at a session of council, it was thought advisable, rather than to hold a mock session, that the public be invited to attend a regular session, despite the fact that it would not be held during the time designated for observance of Pennsylvania Week.

The chairman of each of the standing committees of council, with William H. Pearson as chairman, was named by President Charles G. Rathke, to arrange a program for the occasion. In addition to the transaction of the business of the borough there may be moving pictures showing the operation of the government of boroughs and perhaps there will be a brief address by some official of Bristol borough.

It is anticipated that the meeting will be largely attended and the session will get underway promptly at eight o'clock, and the regular business of council will be expedited so as to afford ample time for the balance of the program.

The councilmen will occupy the regular seats to which they have been assigned upon becoming members of the borough's legislative body, and the public will be accommodated in that portion of the room reserved for spectators.

Agree Vishinsky's Proposal Was Propaganda Move

Paris—Western diplomats are in general agreement today that Soviet delegate Andrei Vishinsky's proposal for arms reduction was largely a clever propaganda move. Many of them did not rule out the possibility that the Russian deputy foreign minister's speech may impress the masses of some countries. A typical U. S. comment was made by Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, who told INS: "It will be tragic if the people of the world are misled by this move. It is extremely distressing to see such complete lack of understanding of the problem, especially in respect to atomic control. If you are going to have really effective control of atomic energy, it must be at the source, and the Soviets are refusing this, despite all Vishinsky may say."

Mr. O'Donnel was struck by a car at Clover avenue and Route 13, Croydon, driver of the car being John Dracka, Cornwells Heights.

The injured man was taken to Harriman Hospital in the ambulance of Bucks County Rescue Squad.

The Bryn Athyn woman was injured when the automobile she was driving skidded off Bern road, Falls township, and overturned. She was removed to Mercer Hospital, Trenton, N. J., for treatment.

State police investigated the accident in which the woman was injured.

Announce Officers of Bracken Post of Legion

Robert W. Bracken Post, American Legion, held its annual meeting for election of officers Tuesday in the Post Home. Officers elected for 1949 are: Commander, Lawrence McCoy; Senior vice commander, Raymond Elekyski; junior vice commander, William Stanton; sergeant-at-arms, John Baron; chaplain, William Jones; finance officer, Robert Hems. Five were elected to the executive committee for a two year term: Martin Healy, Marvel Durham, John Baron, William Alderice and James Dougherty.

Robert Downing and Jacob C. Schmidt, Jr., were elected to the Executive Association board for a term of three years.

It was announced that these officers will be installed at a meeting on Oct. 5th, in St. Mark's Hall. Officers of Fallington and Yardley Posts of the Legion will also be installed in a joint ceremony. Members of the Auxiliary and friends of the Legionnaires are invited to the affair, and dancing and refreshments will follow.

It was announced that the post will hold an Armistice Ball on Thursday Nov. 11th. This affair will also be held in St. Mark's Hall and a well known Philadelphia orchestra has been engaged. A committee, principally of World War II veterans, will be in charge of the affair.

The Cadet committee announced the Corps will participate in a Legion home dedication in Coaldale today. They will compete in a junior drum corps competition for prizes of $2000. On Oct. 2nd they will compete in Olney at the Olmond Post competition. On Oct. 3rd they will enter the Pulaski Day Parade in Philadelphia with St. John's Church of Bridesburg; and give an exhibition drill at the Bracken competition which will be held on Oct. 29th at the Bristol high school field.

Miss Frances Patrice Riggs Is Bride of J. B. Gallagher

Wedding guests are in attendance at a reception in Hibernian hall, Corson street, this afternoon, following the 10 o'clock nuptial mass which united Miss Frances Patrice Riggs, 231 Buckley street, and Mr. Joseph B. Gallagher, 210 Buckley street. The Rev. Joseph Rogers, of St. Thomas Aquinas R. C. parish, Croydon, conducted the service in St. Mark's R. C. Church, Radcliffe street.

Escorted to the altar by her cousin, Mr. Stephen Connell, Wilmington, Del., who gave her in marriage, the bride was attired in white. Above the white satin of the gown appeared an illusion yoke, set off with pearl trim. Lace was used on the bodice and also in vertical ruffles on the front of the skirt which swept to a full train. Sleeves appeared over her hands. Her head was held by a finger-tip veil of net, and slippers were of satin. The bridal bouquet, composed of white roses, rested on her arm.

The bridal march was played by organist, Miss Katherine Keating, Linden street, who was likewise accompanist for vocalists, Mrs. Howard English, Buckley street; and Miss Margaret Fallon, Corson street.

Attendants of the bride were five in number, and included three of her sisters. The maid of honor, Miss Blanche Riggs, was attired in a rose-toned gown; and bridesmaids the Misses Rosemary Riggs, Rita Riggs, and Helen Daugherty, the latter of Kittanning, wore light blue. The costumes were floor-length and of taffeta, with sheer sleeves. Ruffles of taffeta provided off-the-shoulder effect, and long detachable sleeves were worn. Their matching hats of taffeta were sweet heart type, and slippers were in golden hue. They carried arm bouquets of mixed autumn flowers. The lower girl, Patricia Whitaker, Buckley street, was costumed in yellow. Slippers were black, and on her hair she wore a wreath of yellow rose-buds. The nosegay which she carried was of mixed fall blossoms.

Men in the bridal party included: Mr. Peter Harkins, Race street, who served Mr. Gallagher as best man; and the following ushers: Messrs. Samuel Ennis, Washington street; Mr. Edward Gallagher, Buckley street, brother of the bride-groom; and Lloyd McGlynn, Garden street. Members of the bridal party and mothers of the bride and bride-groom were entertained at a wedding breakfast at the Keystone hotel following the ceremony. For the wedding Mrs. Agnes Riggs, mother of the bride, chose a light-blue dress, black hat with white plume, black slippers, white gloves, and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Maud Gallagher, mother of the bride-groom, wore a charcoal gray dress, gray hat, black accessories, and a pink carnation corsage.

The bride-groom, who had a period of service in the army during the recent war, being in the European theatre of operations, presented his attendants with sweaters. The bride's gifts to her adult attendants were miraculous medal bracelets; and to the flower girl a miraculous medal. Upon their return from a weeks' sojourn in the Pocono Mountains, Mr. and Mrs. Gallagher will reside at 210 Buckley street. Travelling costume of the bride will consist of a two-piece dress of dark green tulle, matching accessories, and white shortie coat.

Our gracious Heavenly Father, we most heartily thank Thee for all of Thy blessings in this past week. We thank Thee for health and strength and for Thy presence with us. We do love Thee and want always to please and serve Thee, especially with newness of life. Therefore, direct us tomorrow to a place of worship where we may praise Thee, hear Thy Word, and renew our strength. Show us always the way we must go and give us strength and wisdom to follow the lead of Thy Son, Jesus Christ. To Thee we give the praise through Jesus Christ our living Lord. AMEN.

BRISTOL HIGH XI LOSES TO TRENTON CATHOLIC, 13 TO 6

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 25 — A light Bristol High team was game last night but lacked blocking as it bowed to Trenton Catholic, 13-6, under the floodlights on Dunn field.

The power-laden Catholic team scored twice on the Warriors but were stopped cold in their third drive which saw a gallant Bristol team hold for four downs on the ve-yard stripe.

The Golden Wave had nine first downs in the game while Bristol hauled up eight. But most of Bristol's downs were made when in their own territory and better blocking would have enabled the backs to gain plenty of extra yards.

It wasn't until the final four minutes of the game that the Warriors displayed an offensive enough to hit air dirt. Two brilliant passes from Jimmy Petrilli and Bill Moll to Jimmy Petrilli netted the Warriors' core. Sottile made a fine catch on the first pass which was good for 20 yards. On the second aerial, Jimmy had to do some nice broken field running to score. This play was good for 42 yards. In between the two passes, Graceon White carried the pigskin on an end-around play and skipped off 15 yards. In the three plays which netted a Bristol touchdown, the Warriors gained a total of 77 yards.

In the first quarter, Bristol also had a display of yard-gaining which swept Catholic off its feet. Moll started the proceedings by intercepting a pass on his 30. Daniels found a hole off tackle and went 18 yards before he was spilled. Moll broke loose on an end run and after shaking off two tacklers was finally downed on Trenton's 30. Welker added six more yards but on the fourth down, Moll missed a first by a foot, giving Catholic the ball.

Ted Matecki, husky Golden Wave junior, was in the spot-light for his team. His long kicks kept Bristol in its own territory most of the game and his running of the ball gained much yardage for the ultimate winners. Matecki made the first score of the game in the second quarter when he slipped off tackle for 11 yards, after making two consecutive first downs on runs of 16 and 10 yards. A fumble spoiled the extra point try.

Bristol was fooled completely on Trenton's second six-pointer. The Warriors were expecting a kick when Matecki whipped a pass to Bob Carroll. The play started on Catholic's 45 and ended on Bristol's 30. Jones followed with a 15 yard end run. Two plays carried the ball to the 8 from where Pat Carroll faked an end run to cut in tackle and score without a hand being laid on him. Wollman place-kicked the extra point.

Catholic got as far as the five on a 45-yard pass from Matecki to Bob Carroll. But the small Bristol line held for downs and took possession of the oval.

COUNCIL ROCK WINS EASILY OVER ST. FRANCIS

EDDINGTON, Sept. 25 — Council Rock opened its season yesterday afternoon with an easy 21-0 triumph over the St. Francis Vocational School, here. The Indians scored their touchdowns in the first three periods.

Coach Sagolla's boys scored midway in the first period when Bob Ettenger ran 85 yards on a reverse play. In the second session, Allan scored when he ran 50 yards on an intercepted pass. Russell, a substitute back registered the third six-pointer on a spinner. Bob Titus scored the three extra points.

Ettenger was outstanding for the Newtown team while for St. Francis, Machukas and Moore stood out in the St. Francis backfield with Garrity standing out in the line. Newtown was headed for another touchdown in the final period when
